

Revesby Workers' Club
BOARD ANNOUNCEMENT

Friday, 6 September 2019

As some of you know, Ed Camilleri will be resigning from his role as CEO of the Club.

Ed has been instrumental in establishing the Club as a leader within the industry and an important provider of community-based services for our local area. He has also been a dedicated and a well-respected leader for nearly three decades.

Ed's resignation takes effect on 21 October 2019.

Over coming weeks we will announce the appointment of an Acting CEO while the Board conducts a thorough search for a permanent CEO.